

Photo: Tais

Bringing Forward Wisdom in Adolescence

A forum for parents, educators,
and faith leaders

Saturday, 21 Feb 2009, 10 am - 1 pm

1 Fort Mason, San Francisco
(Franklin & Bay)

$10 family / $7 single / $5 before 7 February

What experiences will help young people develop the compassion and integrity that our world so desperately needs?

How can schools and other community organizations facilitate those experiences?

Listen to a panel of wide-ranging educators and social organizers speak from their own store of personal wisdom. Learn what innovative programs have achieved in the Bay Area. Think about how you can contribute to a movement for wisdom in education.

Contact: now@youngspirit.org

Michael Nagler, Director
Metta Center for Nonviolence Education

Rev. Paul Chaffee, Executive Director
Interfaith Center at the Presidio

Randy Taran, CEO
Project Happiness

BK Bose, Director
Niroga Institute

Megan Cowan
Mindfulness in the Classroom

Teah Strozer
Chaplain, The Bay School

Young Spirit Foundation • 650.209.6692